My Condolence to the family of Marylou. May God Comfort you at this most difficult time of your lives. I was so happy to finally meet my South Texas Family Several years ago. All of you welcomed me with open arms so I grieve with all of you. One great memory I have of Marylou was down on the Frio. I walked into the kitchen and she handed me this little rolling pin and told me I needed to learn how to roll out tortillas. I think I learned how because there must have been a 1000 little balls to roll. I will miss our phone calls. She was always very sweet to me. May you RIP Prima. Sending my Love and Prayers.
