“ This one time he built his grandkids a ramp for their bikes, but he decides he is going to hop on their bike and show them how its done! He starts off going fast and as soon as he hits the ramp the bike flies out of his hands and he is flying through the air and skids on his back cracking up laughing the whole time . He was the greatest grandpa to my children we will always have him in our hearts,minds and when we laugh it will be because of him.
